FANTASTIC WORLDS

PRODUCTIONS

Fantastic Worlds Productions takes five friends with overactive imaginations and brings them together to play Pathfinder. Featuring a diverse cast of hosts and characters, our group strives to create high-quality actual play podcasts focusing on story first, math second. The characters are nuanced, their relationships are complex, and the stakes are high as they travel lands unknown and conquer mighty foes.

We endeavor to create and engage a fantastic community, weaving a story that is not driven only by the written page but the improvised ingenuity of its cast of characters and the luck of their dice rolls. Come for the compelling story, stay for the bitter fights and playful banter.

One of the pillars of Fantastic Worlds Productions is our dedication to inclusivity. Women, People of Color, and members of the LGBT+ community are found in the characters played and the players themselves. What better way to be fantastic than to celebrate diversity?

Fantastic Worlds Productions is so excited to invite you all to join them in this next momentous step of their journey. They love to engage with their community of fans and listeners and can be found on various social media platforms found on our website fantasticworldspod.com.

Come along on this fantastic ride and learn more at Fantastic Worlds Productions. Share in the mirth. Revel in the glory. But most important, fall in love with the cooperative and improvised story delivered every two weeks on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, & wherever else podcasts are available.

FANTASTIC WORLDS PODCAST

It has been a century since the immortal witch Baba Yaga last visited the world, and the hour draws nigh for her return. But when she fails to appear in the frozen realm of Irrisen to usher in its newest ruler, pockets of winter begin to grow throughout the Inner Sea. After 1,400 years of perpetual winter, the icy curse of Irrisen is spreading! What links do these strange blizzards and swaths of wintry landscapes have with Irrisen, and is there any truth to the growing rumors that the Witch Queen Elvanna has taken full control of the realm? Can her plans for the Inner Sea be thwarted, or will the Reign of Winter engulf the world?

Five friends come together to discover what ushers in this unnatural winter and the forces in-play threatening all of Golarian. Fantastic Worlds Podcast is an Actual Play using Paizo's Pathfinder Reign of Winter Adventure Path

Our Team

Dustin Alexander - Owner/Creator

Dungeon Master - Fantastic Worlds Podcast

Player - The Greatest Show on Earth

Character - Mariposa Novalie - Champion

When Dustin was a kid, he had dreams of being an adult. As an adult, he dreams of being an adult but finding outlets that still let him act like a kid.

Playing tabletop games for most of his life, and spending most of his life now listening to podcasts, he thought, why not combine the two? A lover of taking long walks off short piers, good beer, good friend, good times. An eternal optimist at heart and a lover of all things fantastic. Dustin is ready to bring his skills as a player and DM to the masses. With the hope bringing smiles to some and death to characters by the monsters he creates.

Abigail Lammel - Owner/Creator

Player - Fantastic Worlds Podcast

Character - Pippa Locksley - Arcane Trickster

Player - The Greatest Show on Earth

Character - Dr. Celaeno Nis - Alchemist

Abbie was born the bratty, dramatic child of two New York actors turned California theater professors and, as such, developed a love of melodrama, slapstick comedy, musicals, and the sound of her voice. She only got involved with tabletop RPG's fairly recently in 2015 because her roommates at the time played (long, long into the night). Abbie was pretty skeptical at first when they plunked her down with the Player's Handbook for a sci-fi RPG called Altermity, but as soon as she found out she could play a Space Elf with a blaster, mind control powers and a killer Diplomacy check she. Was. Hooked.

Abbie's worked in radio for the past four years on a few local stations in her hometown (further inflating her sense of how great she sounds) and is eager to bring those skills to FWP. She still has no idea what she wants to be when she grows up, but in the meantime enjoys snuggling with the cat that is contractually bound to validate her in exchange for food.

Angel Espinoza - Owner/Creator

Player - Fantastic Worlds Podcast

Character - Abraxas Hillrunner - Druid

Player - The Greatest Show on Earth

Character - Byron "Lightning" Stendhal - Monk

Angel was a quiet boy growing up. He was all about reading, drawing, and Sábado morning cartoons. As he grew up, he added classical music, Kevin Sorbo, and origami to his list of interests. He joined the D&D familia after a good friend convinced him there was no way the Player's Handbook could be used to summon el diablo. Now he can roll a multiclass Avariel Ranger/Cleric with the best of them while playing his Los Tigres del Norte/Rammstein/Jonathan Young playlist.

Jess Negin - Owner/Creator

Player - Fantastic Worlds Podcast

Character - Menet Serbanea - Paladin
(Episode 6-57)

Character - Andromeda - Oracle
(Episode 58-Present)

RingMaster - The Greatest Show on Earth

Jessica was born in Texas, raised in a number of different states, and gained full sentience in California 13 years ago. She's bisexual, bilingual, and... bipedal (mostly). She spends most of her time playing video games that she's already beaten and doing weird projects at 3 am. She also likes to write sometimes but hasn't released anything (yet). She's a consummate hobbyist who can't focus on one thing at a time. She started playing Pathfinder in 2009 and has been in and out of campaigns ever since.

Logan Mayne Rizzi - Creator

Player - Fantastic Worlds Podcast

Character - Buwan - Unchained Summoner
(Episodes 66 - Present)

Player - The Greatest Show on Earth

Character - Panoply Jupiter Teardrop - Bard

Logan is originally from Marin County, CA, but has been living in the Sacramento area for 10+ years with his husband and two cats. During his college years, he unsuccessfully tried several times to trick his friends and future partner into playing any form of TTRPG. Eventually, they succumbed, and he has been a part of several gaming groups over the years playing everything from Pokémon Tabletop United and Tales From the Loop to Dungeons & Dragons, Starfinder, and of course Pathfinder. Behind the screen or rolling up a character, Logan takes inspirations from many of his pop culture obsessions such as X-Men, Rupaul's Drag Race, Pokémon, JRPGs, Science Fiction, and much much more.
